Instrumental Music Department

Mr. Bill Henderson, Director

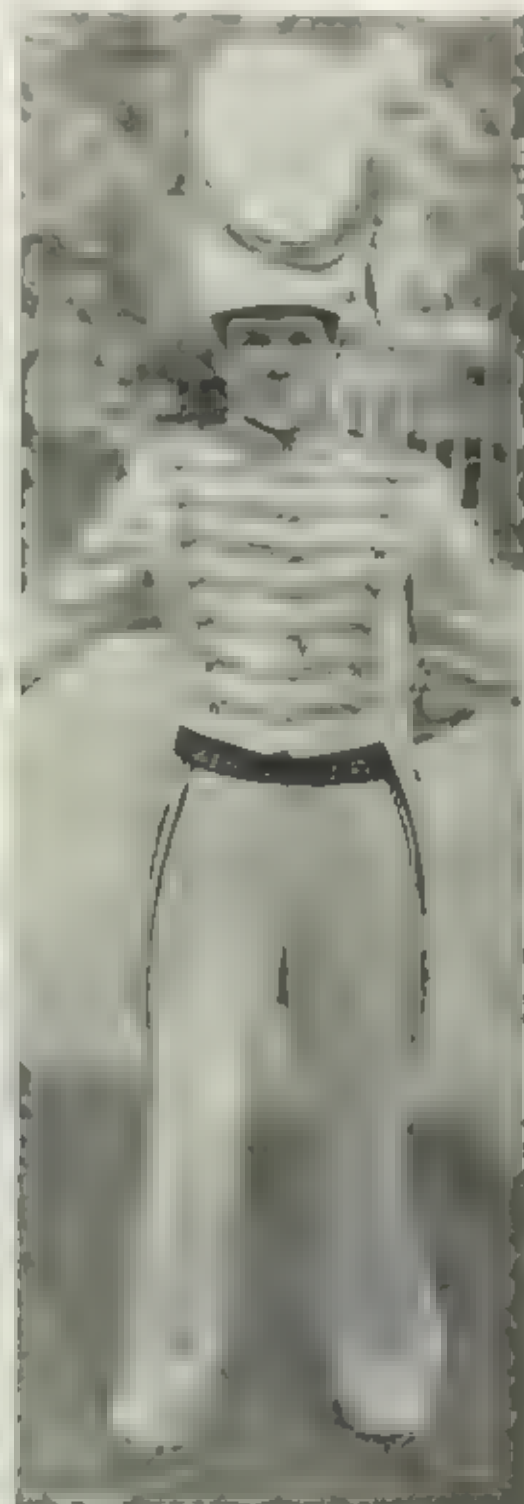

The Band has been one of the most loyal and hard-working groups at Lincoln. In addition to marching at all the football games, it has been a big factor in our great pep assemblies.

This spring, the band practiced many hours for the Spring Festival, and performed well in concerts at North High and Weeks Jr. High.

Under the leadership of Dick Remer, drum major, and Roxie Graham, prancer, the band also performed admirably at all parades.

Organ Class and All-City Band

Mr. Henderson, Director

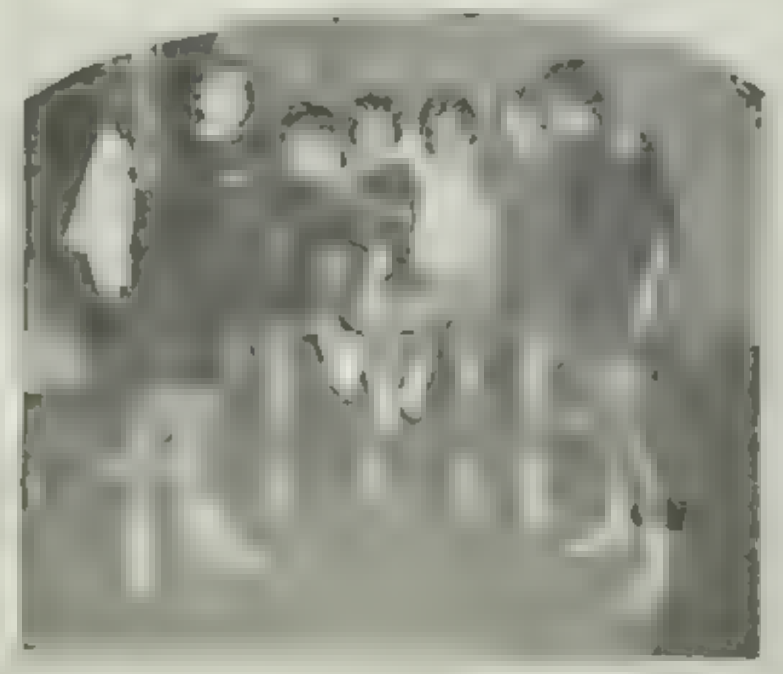

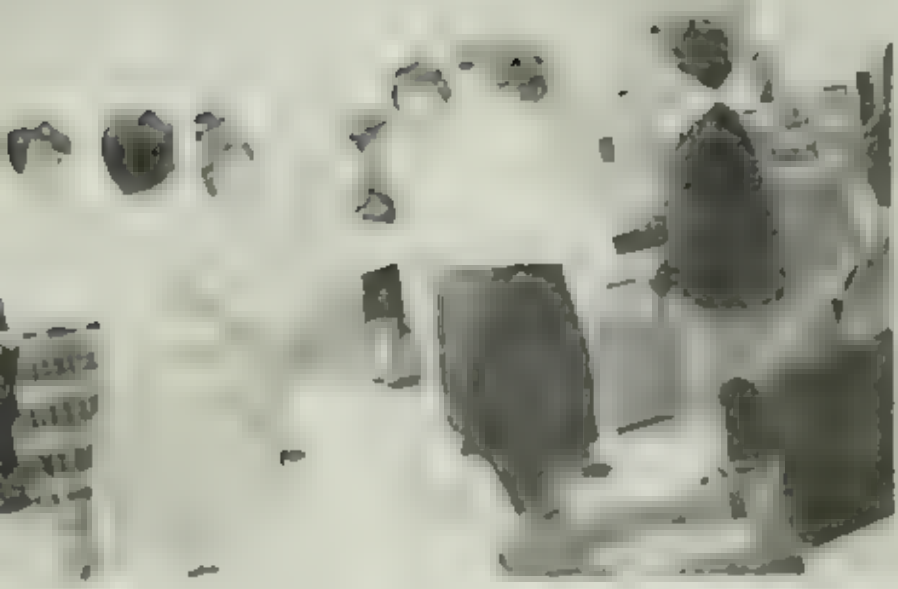

One of the many new facilities at Lincoln this year is the Baldwin organ, installed in the auditorium for use at assemblies, and special activities such as Baccalaureate, Commencement, and plays.

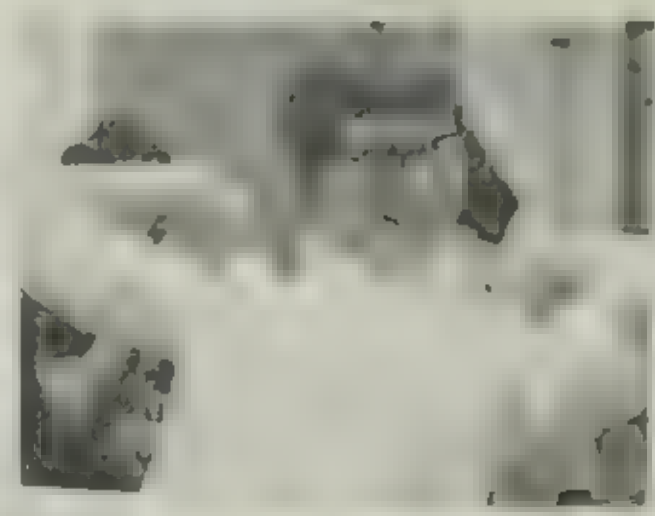

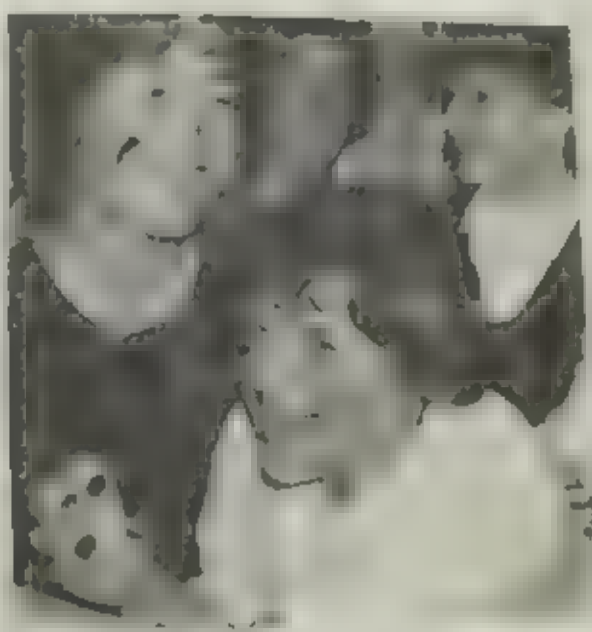

It also provides an opportunity for students to play it, and many practice on it diligently under the direction of Mr. Henderson and Mr. Whaley.

One of the special activities available to instrumentalists is the All-City Band. This is a group comprised of the top musicians from each of the city's high schools; it performs for special functions, such as the United Campaign Kickoff and a spring concert that is televised.

The Journalism 2 Class has the job of making the Senior Rail, which includes makeup, sketches, picture pages, advertising, highlights, glossies, and organizations.

So that seniors and others may look back with fond memories of their school days, the book gives graphic pictures of the school activities

The dual newspaper staff has been putting out a paper every two weeks. This staff is composed of students who have various duties such as getting and writing stories, selling ads, making up pages, and delivering the paper. Developing an ability to write correct, terse, forceful English is of prime importance in this course.

Advisors

The senior and junior student councils are composed of two representatives from each home room. They are headed by an executive staff of president, vice-president, chief justice, secretary, and treasurer. The purpose of the councils is to encourage student management of the building, grounds, and student body of Lincoln.

The monitors are the host and hostesses of Lincoln. Their duty is to maintain order in the halls and greet all guests that enter the building near their post.

The homemaking staff serves both junior and senior schools. The members assist in preparation in the foods lab., help decorate window cases and bulletin boards. Any girl in school may apply for staff. However, she must have a useful aptitude, such as art, typing, dexterity with a needle. Assignments are many and varied.

Art Staff is made up of students who have a keen interest in art. Lincoln extends its thanks of gratitude to the art staff for the fine signs, posters, and displays of past and forthcoming events.

LOYALTY SONG

To Lincoln High, maroon and gold,
 We pledge our loyalty
 As thru the years we come and go,
 true to thee we'll be
 The halls that we have known so well,
 The friends that we have made,
 Will stay with us in memory,
 And never will they fade

FIGHT SONG

We are the dear old gang from L.H.S
 And we are pretty good, you must confess
 We'll have you understand this is our team
 We're going to win this game or know the reason why
 We're going to fight, fight, fight, just watch us step
 We're going to win this game and save our rep, save our rep
 L.H.S. has lots of pep, lots of pep
 Rah! Rah! Rah!

Lincoln 1962 Spring Highlights

The spring semester of '62 will long be remembered as new and exciting in many ways, filled with good leaders, new features, and many honors.

Heading this semester's Student Council was president, John Blake; vice-president, Chuck Roland; secretary, Linda Evans; treasurer, Linda Ray; and chief justice, Jerome Bradley. An improved and divided lunch line plus new 50 star flags were just two of their first projects.

Leading the junior council were officers: Bob Clark, president; Kathie Hill, vice-president; Linda Mincks, judicial chairman; Judy Kothentual, secretary; and Barbara Dickes, treasurer.

A new feature at Lincoln this semester was the advanced composition course. This was a select group of twenty students under the direction of Mr. McWhirter who were given the opportunity to study well known essays and to put a greater emphasis on written work. It was hoped to encourage more precise work from above average students.

A new addition to Lincoln's teaching facilities was the installation of the language lab. Through a complicated network of master panels, cables, and headphones, the language classes have been experiencing a new style of teaching.

The Photography Club was a new undertaking at Lincoln this semester. Under the direction of Mr. Ewers and club president, Daryl Rupp, the new club made outstanding progress.

Judy Bonhote, our exchange student from Switzerland, experienced a whole year of excitement and unaccustomed ways while spending her time here with the Ogrens.

The KSO dirty dribbler basketball team faced our brusque faculty in February. The profits went to buy the new 50 star flags and the vain attempt to win left the faculty stiff and dislocated.

Germany has been a place of discussion this semester in that Mr. Ewers returned to Lincoln from a years teaching experience there and Lincoln's stationary engineer, Mr. Seiler, will be releasing a book for publication on his experiences in America after having lived in Germany until 1956.

In late March, the 12A class held its annual Get-Together. Dressed in costumes depicting Story Book Land the halls were filled with a conglomeration of animals, characters, and the unknown. With half closed lids the senior students survived by sleeping through study halls.

The Frederick W. Lehmann, Jr. scholarship fund was continued by the terms of Mr. Lehmann's will. This is a $10,000 fund to be given to a worthy Lincoln High student to provide a college education.

Eight art students won scholastic key awards, they were: Bill Allen, whose work will be sent to New York for final judging in the national competition; Dennis Chadwick, Bill Coburn, Dixie Parsons, Doug Smiley, Craig Wallace, and Susan Wheatley, all senior high students. John Fuller was the only junior high artist to win a golden key.

Our June graduating class was guided by the president, Marvin Rooney; vice-president, Dave Kirkman; secretary, Mary Alice Hall; and treasurer, Sharon Lewis. All were required to attend all committee meetings at 7:45!

"Little Women" appeared on stage this semester April 6-7. Laughter blended with misty eyes were two signs which proved to the drama department under the direction of Mrs. Beverly Moe that their play had succeeded.

Every student was glad to see the Easter Bunny coming this semester for that reprieve starting April 19.

The theme for the Senior Informal held April 27 was Hawaii, music was provided by stereo records and the Blazers' combo. Palm trees and paper streamers were two decorations which set the theme off. The boys were even delighted to find hula girls!

"Holidays" was the theme for the Mermaids' annual synchronized swimming show May 3 and 4. A splashing good time was provided for both the performers and onlookers. Seniors, Becky Maxon and Betay Casady were featured in special soloists events.

Lincoln's annual Spring Carnival was held May 18 on the parking lot. The cake walk, baseball throw, ring toss, and dancing for seniors and juniors in both gyms were just some of the many attractions.

Individual highlights were numerous and varied this semester. A few of these were:

Dave Kirkman was elected vice-president of the state DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America).

Brian Percival broke a state swimming record in the individual medley record, knocking three seconds off the old record in the state swimming championships, his time was 2:13.2.

In wrestling Warren Burge and Doc Reppert won district championships.

Karen Miller was privileged to head a double Railsplitter paper staff of twenty students.

Lincoln 1962 Spring Highlights

Jean Trickey, Denny Davis, and Barbara Bunch won honors in the annual Soroptimist Essay Contest. Jeanne's was sent to the state division for judging.

Winning third place in the county annual thrift essay contest was Linda Harrison who started out "Dear Mom"—? Barbara Bunch won first place in the school division.

Sherry Florer and Jim Noland won one ratings in the state drama and speech contest. Diane Wilson and Vivian Briney were division two winners.

Drake Relays parade April 28 displayed Lincoln's princesses, Donna Foes, Cathy Funaro, and Sheryl Keefer.

Linda Evans reigned as Lincoln's polio queen candidate this year for the annual March of Dimes dance.

Winding up the semester's activities for the 12As were: the senior banquet, May 29; baccalaureate June 3; class day June 6; and graduation June 7.

Thanks goes out from the senior class to their homeroom teachers, Miss Ealy, Mrs. Leonard, Miss Moroney, Mrs. Richardson, Miss Selby, Mr. Cox, Mr. Graaff, and Mr. Whaley.

These were only a very few of the many tremendous memories which will remain always in the hearts of the graduating seniors of 1962 and those Lincoln students who remain.

CONSIDER...

A CAREER

...NOT A JOB

When looking ahead to your business life, you want to think beyond just a job. Consider the kind of business career you want and judge the qualities of the company which is a part of that business. Life Insurance is a good business and the Equitable Life of Iowa is a good company — offering so many opportunities for the career man or woman.

Look into the Equitable, and you'll find all of the so-called fringe benefits offered by business generally, plus some that only Equitable has for you. Most importantly, there are so many phases of life insurance work that your opportunities for advancement and permanency are limited only by your own ability. In the Personnel Office, 1105 Equitable Building, you'll find Miss Pat Bush—discuss with her all the opportunities that exist for you at the Equitable—you may choose your career right now.
